STILL

Rather than a focus on hardware in the form of splashy brands and logos, this trend is all about the customization of embellishment.

From quirky pins and brooches (a salsa-dancing emoji comes to mind) to embroidery, patchwork and studding, the trend looks great layered, so you can opt for as little (or as much) as you like.

Jacket with attached pins, $100, hmv.com. Top, $125, jehandjancollection.com. Jeans, $45, oldnavy.ca

Accessorize a moto or denim jacket with a cluster of mismatched on-purpose pins.

GAME ON

Sport-inspired fashion is still hot for 2017, from the silky mesh slipdresses seen at Gloss to the colour-blocked trackuits spotted at Versace. The latest iteration of athleisure is streamlined and romantic, with less neon-splattered spandex and more soft tones and silky layers. Coat, $250, linethelabel.com. Mesh top, $100, sympil.com. Top, $15, uniglo.co.uk. Track pants, $30, and shoes, hm.com/uk. TNA hat, arible.com. Brooch, linksofondon.com. Bag, roots.com.
